

IN HOURS OF SUNSHINE PREPARE FOR RAIN

Don't wait until it rains before you get a rain coat or umbrella.

The man with the STEIN-BLOCH SMART RAIN COAT cares not how hard it rains, for the water cannot touch him. And besides, even if it did not rain his rain coat is ready for evening wear to the theatre or any other place where People wish to Look Swell.

These Rain Coats are made from absolutely rain-proof cloth in attractive mixtures and solid colors.

They are cut in the long full back with broad shoulders, or in the fashionable and popular Paletot style.

WATERFRONT NEWS

THE PILOT BOAT.

A type of the staunch little schooners that cruise off the heads with the Frisco pilots.

WHEN THE ALAMEDA DROPS HER PILOT

The Alameda is pushing her nose through the chilly Frisco fog headed for the open sea. Now and then when the damp curtain lifts one may catch a glimpse of the forbidding bluffs that stand the Golden Gate. From somewhere out in the mist comes the moaning of a whistling buoy mingled with the tinkling of a bell buoy. On the bridge stands Captain Dowdell and beside him muffled in a heavy overcoat stands the Autocrat of the Gate—the pilot. The passengers are scattered about the deck, some straining their eyes to get a last glimpse of the shore and others chatting in the lee of the deck house.

Suddenly Purser Smith appears at his office door and remarks, "If any of you people want to send letters ashore with the pilot you had better get them ready." This comes as a surprise to the novices aboard and when they rush below to the saloon they find all the pens and ink wells in the hands of those who have traveled this way before. It is not long before every available place around the writing table is taken. Here is an unromantic looking business man dashing a few lines to a clerk with the air of a millionaire ordering his broker to sell fifty thousand shares of Steel at a handsome profit. There is a party of globe trotters finishing the work of directing a stack of souvenir post cards that proved too much for them on land. At one end of the table is a homesick school teacher who is writing to the home folks and down in the further corner is a youth who is writing a letter to his newly acquired fiancée. You know that because he keeps his blotter over the top part of the first page.

Then the purser's warning voice causes a mild grabbing for envelopes while the lovelorn youth thinks up an appropriate ending for his epistle and inscribes it at the foot of the last page carefully glancing around to see whether anyone is looking. Then the letters are all given to the purser and the passengers gather at the side to see the pilot go. As he shakes hands with the captain and bids the officers good-bye you see the corner of your particular envelope sticking out of his overcoat pocket for a moment. Then he swings over the side and down the rope ladder to the tiny boat that leaps up and down at the big steamer's side. A moment later he is in the stern sheets and two husky sailors are pulling the whaleboat over the tossing swells toward the pilot boat a few hundred yards away. The black smoke pours out of the steamer's funnel, the screw begins to churn the water at her stern. You look back. There is the pilot climbing into the big schooner. A few minutes later you can just make her out in the haze with the big "11" on her mainsail faint in the distance. You look again and she is gone. The last tie to home has been cut.

The ship Luzon with 2,080 tons of sugar arrived at Delaware Breakwater Saturday. At $85.10 per ton her cargo was worth $177,008.

Hackfeld & Co. have received a cablegram from San Francisco announcing the departure of the Gaelic for Honolulu last Saturday. She will probably arrive Saturday morning.

MOVEMENT OF MAIL STEAMERS

The next steamer carrying mail to the coast will be the Oceanic liner Ventura which should sail for San Francisco this afternoon. The transport Logan which left Manila on the fifteenth of last month should turn up today or tomorrow and she will take the next mail. After her will come the China which is due on Friday of this week. Mail from the coast arrives on the Sonoma tomorrow. This will be a nine days' mail. Two steamers should be in from the coast on Saturday, the transport Sheridan and the Occidental and Oriental liner Gaelic. It is probable that there will be but one mail and that on the Gaelic. The next boats will be the Alameda on October 14 and the Mongolla the 19th.

Swamped in Channel.

Kalaheo and his brother, Kama, two Hawaiians, were swamped when fishing in a canoe off the harbor entrance Sunday evening. Kalaheo, who is an elderly man, was picked up about midnight by a Japanese sampan. He was turned over to the police because it was at first thought that he might have killed his companion for his gold watch. The police were later convinced that the missing man got to shore safely and the prisoner was released.

A-H. Schedule.

The new schedule of the American-Hawaiian line has just been published. The S. S. Nebraskan is scheduled to sail from New York for this port via the Pacific Coast on the eighth of the month. The Nevada sails from Seattle on the fourth and from Tacoma on the sixth of this month. On her return trip she will leave this port October 17th and again sail from San Francisco on the second of November.

Shipping Notes.

The Maui got away last night for Hawaii ports.

The steamers Likelike and Noeau sailed yesterday.

The Kinai will sail for Hilo and way ports at noon today.

Services were held on both the Buffalo and the Paul Isenberg Sunday.

The new wharf at foot of Fort street is rapidly approaching completion.

The Mauna Loa came off the ways yesterday and will sail on her regular run today.

Don't Delay Registering.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The ORIGINAL remedy that "kills the Dandruff Germ."

GOING! GOING!! GONE!!!

HERPICIDE WILL SAVE IT. HERPICIDE WILL SAVE IT. TOO LATE FOR HERPICIDE. THE LADIES OBJECT to a gummy and sticky hair dressing, or one that is full of sedentary chemicals intended to dye the hair. The marked preference for a dainty dressing, particularly one that overcomes excessive oiliness and leaves the hair light and fluffy, is reflected in the enormous sale of Newbro's Herpicide. Ladies become enthusiastic over its refreshing quality and exquisite fragrance. It destroys the microbe growth in the scalp, cures dandruff, stops falling hair and gives it a silken gloss. STOPS ITCHING INSTANTLY.

Drug Stores, $1.00. Send 10c, stamps, to HERPICIDE CO., Dept. H, Detroit, Mich., for a sample.
